NOTICE

s.61 Resignation (Disbarment)

On April 13, 2015, a Resignation Committee of the Benchers of the Law Society of Alberta granted the application of Floyd Hunter Campbell to resign immediately pursuant to section 61 of the Legal Profession Act of Alberta. This means that Mr. Campbell has been disbarred.

Mr. Campbell resides in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and practiced in Calgary and Edmonton, Alberta. At the time of his resignation, Mr. Campbell was a suspended member for non-payment of annual fees. He was also the subject of two completed investigations and of several formal complaints and Assurance Fund investigations.

In May 2012, Mr. Campbell was retained by a client to act on the sale of a property. Upon receipt of the cash to close the transaction, Mr. Campbell used a Discharge of Caveat in breach of a trust condition and misappropriated funds to finance his and a business associate's real estate development projects. He also misled his client about the whereabouts of the missing funds. Additionally, between November 2009 and July 2012, Mr. Campbell signed documents with signatures that purported to be those of other people and stated that he had witnessed signatures that he had not actually witnessed.

Mr. Campbell has admitted the facts to support the resignation application in a signed Statement of Facts, a copy of which may be obtained from the Law Society upon request.

Mr. Campbell is no longer a member of the Law Society of Alberta.
